Race2Recovery (R2R) is an English organization which helps former soldiers of the British Army in serious financial trouble, mutilated ...

For example, it allows to generate the income required to offer the chance to the former soldiers interested to participate to famous races like the Silk Way or the Dakar Rally !

That's why the slogan of R2R is :beyond injury, achieve the extraordinary."

It's with this objective that Pierre de Frenne, boss of Donerre, will be the team manager of R2R until the Dakar Rally 2013 ! Indeed, the novice team needs someone with experience in the field for forming them.
